

Academic Support: What's it all about anyway?

Gala Jackson, M.Ed.
Academic Initiatives, Coordinator
GT Housing & Residence Life

What is academic support?

Is it for me?

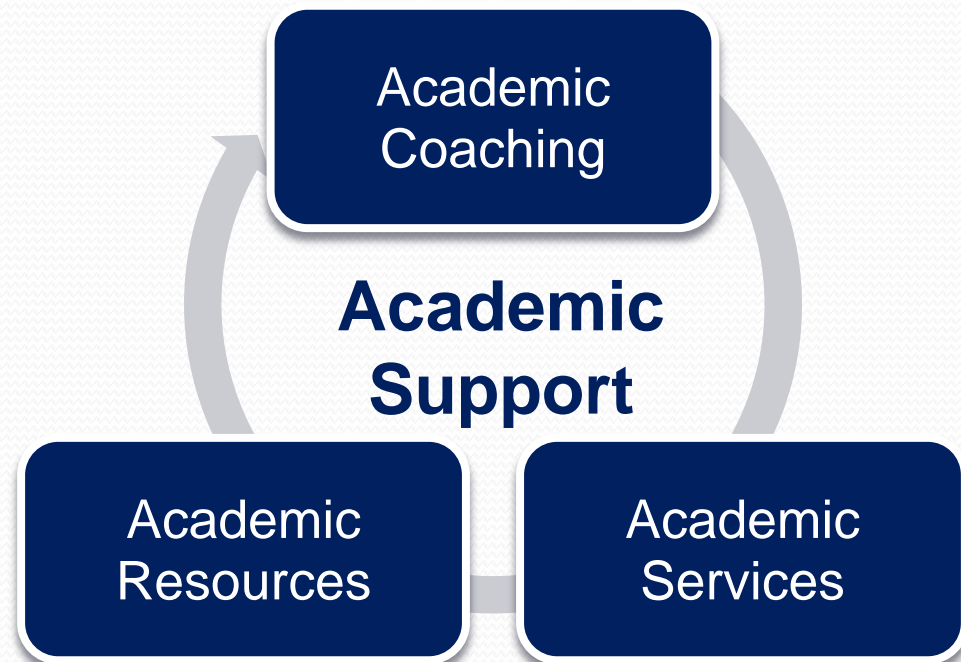

How can I obtain it?

What is Academic Support?

Academic support promotes and assist with students' cogitative development and most commonly takes place outside of the classroom.

Academic support encompasses:

- Academic Services
- Academic Coaching
- Academic Resources

Academic Coaching

Communication (multiple methods) with a student that provides assistance with his/her cognitive development.

Encourages the use of services and resources for the student's academic development.

Champion for the student's academic achievement.

Identifying student needs to help the student achieve academic success.

Academic Services

An act, activity, or accommodation provided by a department or office that is beneficial to student learning & development.

Examples:

- Career Services
- Counseling Center
- Learning Assistance Program
- TA study sessions/office hours

Academic Resources

Tangible piece of information the student can utilize or take away from an academic service that assist with the students academic success.

Examples:

- Worksheet
- Resource Guide
- Pamphlet
- “How to...”/ “Top 10 Ways to...”

Is it for Me?

Academic support is utilized by every student in some shape form or fashion. It is a vital part of a successful college experience.

Academic support can be and is used by the most accomplished students to stay on track, maintain motivation, and even assist with school/life balance.

Academic Support can and is also used by students who may be experiencing difficulty with a particular course, subject area, or who may have academic/personal concerns.

How can I obtain Academic Support?

Please visit the link below to review a list of Academic Support Service providers available at the Institute:

<http://www.housing.gatech.edu/academicservices/services.cfm>

Visit each website for additional details. Feel free to call, drop by, or schedule a personal appointment at one or more of the offices listed.